

35. BORN INTO A BATTLE

Capo 2, Play G

Verse 1:

F#m(Em) A(G) F#m(Em)
Born into a battle, a warfare to know.

A(G)
Beyond the visible we see it,
E(D)

The army, the field and the foe
F#m(Em) A(G) E(D)
God alone in the garden, where it began long ago.

F#m(Em) E(D)
Where the enemy who rose up,
D(C)

Deceived the man God made;
F#m(Em) E(D)

Where God stated His intention,
F#m(Em)
To crush that serpent's head.

Refrain:

A(G) E(D) D(C)
For the kingdom of this world, it shall become

F#m(Em) E(D) D(C)
The kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ!
F#m(Em) E(D) D(C)

And He shall reign forever and ever
A(G) F#m(Em)
more.

Verse 2:

F#m(Em) A(G) F#m(Em)
Entered into victory what wisdom this plan

A(G)
God's Son born of a woman, Messiah an E(D)

ordinary man

F#m(Em) A(G)
Satan said, "It seems so easy,"

E(D)
As nail through flesh and blood ran.
F#m(Em) E(D)

"Sure this foolishness can't threaten

D(C)
my reign of death and sin,"
F#m(Em) E(D)
but the third day Jesus rose up
F#m(Em)
and triumphed over him. (Refrain)

Verse 3:

F#m(Em) A(G)
Toward the final conflict,
F#m(Em)
God's word our command.

A(G)
We move inevitably onwards,
E(D)

God's weapons held in our hands
F#m(Em) A(G)

In Him we shall do more than conquer,
E(D)

Before our Lord who can stand.
F#m(Em) E(D)

Man shall glorify His maker,
D(C)
God shall be enjoyed,
F#m(Em) E(D)

And that one called the deceiver,
F#m(Em)
His works shall be destroyed. (Refrain)
